WEEKLY TELEGRAPH. BY JAMES REED.

Achtabula, Ohio, August 21, 1858. DOMESTIC MATTERS.

Exites of Florida -- Our readers are sware that this is the title of a work recently published by Messra Pollet, Foster & Co. of Columbos, from the pen of our Congressional Representative, Hop. J. R. Ginnesna. The work is thought of coming stern winter in this fathadea verifable and reliable history of the Florida war and the exiles who fled early in the last Georgia, and sought freedom and protection more than half a century enjoyed their freedom under protection of the Spanish laws.

The narrative shows how these exiles were heavily upon them, they fled to Florida, and, under Spanish laws became free; hotding Spanish lauds, becoming citizens of the Territory and cutitled to protection. How at a time of profound peace, our army, acting under the direction of the Executive, invaded Florida, murdered many of these exiles, and consigned others to slavery. How an expensive and bloody war followed, succeeded by diplomacy, which wonder, we thought and asked questions, and resulted in the purchase of Florida; how treatles were made with the Florida Indians and violated; gross frauds perpetrated; dishonerable expedients resorted to, and another war provoked. How during its protracted continuance of soven years, bribery and treachery were practic-need common sense in Mining as well as every ed towards the exiles and their allies, the Seminoles. How by these means the removal of the exiles was effected a they ulrimately compelled ticle is a scrious discount on enterprise. to seek an asylum in Mexico.

In absorbing interest, in truthfulness of nacrative, in stirring focidents, as identified with the political history of the country, and as in Such discoveries will be talked of prudently, all probability this will be the last effort of until the lucky finders have squatted, preone who has well fitted his cup of fame, and been so highly honored in that fulfilment, and
